DEFEND FREEDOM OF INFORMATION

On Friday 18th May, Conservative and Labour MPs voted to exempt Parliament from Freedom of Information laws, creating one law for MPs and Lords and one law for everyone else.

The Bill - introduced by a Conservative MP - will now go to the House of Lords, where it can still be stopped from becoming law.

We, the undersigned, believe that Members of Parliament should be subject to the Freedom of Information Act, with no special exemptions, and call on all political parties to support this position.
